Applicant's letter of 12 October 2004, regarding the Notice to File Missing Parts mailed 12 August 2004, has been reviewed. Applicant is correct that no Sequence Listing needs to be filed in the instant application, since there are no sequences disclosed in the instant application.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-22, drawn to a method for producing a male-sterile plant, classified in class 800, subclass 303, for example.
- II. Claims 23-44, drawn to a method for producing a female-sterile plant, classified in class 800, subclass 287, for example.
- III. Claims 45-47, drawn to a method for producing a male-sterile and female-sterile plant via successive transformation and crossing steps, classified in class 800, subclass 271, for example.

The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I-II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different designs, modes of operation, and effects. Each invention requires physiologically and biochemically divergent starting materials and process steps not required by the other.

The invention of Group I requires particular stamen-specific promoters not required by any other group. The invention of Group II requires particular pistil-specific promoters not required by any other group. The inventions of Groups I and II require particular ornamental plant species, and methods for transformation and regeneration thereof, not required by Group III. The invention of Group III requires multiple transformation steps and/or crossing steps, each not required by the other groups.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, classification, and fields of search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David T. Fox whose telephone number is 571-272-0795. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday from 10:30AM to 7:00PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Anne Marie Grunberg, can be reached on 571-272-0975. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
